Overview of Collection

Creator: Students in Anne Phillips Classes

Title: Anne Phillips Oral Histories/Surry Community College

Quantity: Two document cases

Abstract: This collection is the oral history class assignments given to students by Dr. Anne Phillips. Each student interviewed a person of their choice and presented their work when completed. Some completed assignments include transcripts, cassette tapes, vhs tapes, photographs, and notes. According to the dates, this is the work of two, possibly three classes.

Language: English

Repository: Surry Community College Archives

Scope and Content: This collection contains two document cases of files arranged by date and then alphabetically by the name of the person interviewed. Most folders contain a written transcript of the interview and some contain cassette tapes, floppy discs, or video home system tapes. These are inaccessible but remain with the collection. There is one interview from 1992, another from 1993, eight interviews from the 1997 class, one from 2005, and approximately thirty-three interviews from 2007.

Arrangement: Collection arranged by date.

Restrictions: The collection is available to the public after an interview with library personnel.
